Group health plan type

Your group health plan status will fall into one of the following three options. Please check the appropriate option.

If you are an ERISA-exempt church plan (as described below) you must also choose one of the rebate distribution options:

My group health plan is an employee benefit plan established or maintained by an employer or an employee organization (such as a union).

My group health plan is a nonfederal government plan. (i.e. states, municipalities, special districts, such as: school districts, park districts, and airport districts.)

My group health plan is an ERISA-exempt plan, (i.e. church plan, a convention or an association of churches) AND:

Must check one of the following if ERISA-exempt

Rebate will be sent to the group. The plan agrees to use any rebate issued for the benefit of the group health plan subscribers.

Rebate will be sent to plan subscribers. The plan does not agree to use any rebate issued for the benefit of the group health plan subscribers.

Note:

If an option is not selected from the rebate distribution options above, any rebates will be sent directly to the enrollees of the group health plan covered by the policy during the Medical Loss Ratio reporting year. Each enrollee will receive an equal share without regard to how much each enrollee actually paid towards premiums.
